

SUPPLEMENTAL FIGURE 2: Origin of feline coronavirus (FCoV) serotype II

FCoV serotype II arises from a double recombination event between FCoV type I (shown in white) and canine coronavirus (CCoV) (shown in purple). The genome of FCoV serotype II is primarily composed of FCoV serotype I but with the S gene and its adjacent sequences originating from CCoV.

Courtesy of Peter Rottier, University of Utrecht, Netherlands

For more information, visit catvets.com/fip & everycat.org/aafp-fip-guidelines.